

Let the NAB compete without government intervention. Competition is good for the American public.